

1.1 Overview of Christians Religious Education

Learning Christian Religious Education enables one to acquire values that foster moral living. More of these values include:

1. Faith - Believing and depending on God in all situations
2. Hope - Looking forward with confidence to God's promises and a better future.
3. Generosity - Sharing time, resources and talents freely with others.
4. Compassion - Feeling pity for those suffering and helping them.
5. Contentment - Being satisfied with what you have and avoiding greed.
6. Courage - Standing up for truth even when it is difficult.