RESPONSES TO KNOWLEDGE TEST

1.0 CREATION

1.1 Origin and consequences of sin

Knowledge test page 54

1.
   a) Praying for strength to overcome temptation.
   b) Reading the Bible and remembering God's teachings on good morals.
   c) Politely declining the invitation.
   d) Avoiding bad company and keeping away from friends who influence her.
   e) Engaging in alternative good activity, for example, church youth meeting.
   f) Seeking advice from parents, teacher and religious leaders.
   g) Remembering the consequences of sin and disobedience.
2.
   a) Honesty - Be truthful, money is not his.
   b) Integrity - Doing right even when no one sees.
   c) Justice / Fairness - Owner will suffer loss.
   d) Contentment - Be satisfied with what he has.
   e) Responsibility / Respect for others property.
   f) Fear of God / Righteousness - Stealing is sin - Exodus 20:15.
   g) Love / Compassion for owner.

1.2 God's plan for redemption

Knowledge test page 56

1.
   a) Taking care of Mrs Njogu by washing her clothes, cooking, fetching water and cleaning the house.
   b) Taking her to hospital, buying her medicine and praying for healing.
   c) Repairing her house by fixing leaks.
   d) Providing food, clothing and bedding.
   e) Keeping her company.
   f) Comforting and encouraging her.
2. Because God loved the world so much He did not want human kind to perish but have eternal life.
3.
   a) Getting blessings from God.
   b) Feeling inner peace, joy and satisfaction.
   c) Building a good relationship with others.
   d) Strengthening faith and growing spiritually.
   e) Showing obedience to God and living by Christian values.

f) Receiving help from others in future.

2.0 THE BIBLE

2.1 Faith and God's promises

Knowledge test page 59

1.
   a) God keeps His promises even if it takes long.
   b) There is need for patience and perseverance.
   c) God is faithful and trustworthy.
   d) He should continue being faithful, obedient and practise hard.
   e) God's timing is best.
   f) He should not give up or lose hope.
2.
   a) Praying daily and trusting God to answer.
   b) Obeying God's commandments and parents / teachers.
   c) Believing that God will help in studies, challenges.
   d) Patiently waiting for God's blessings.
   e) Acting with faith by doing good even when not rewarded immediately.

2.2 Abrahamic covenant

Knowledge test page 63

1.
   a) It involves a blood oath which is against God's law.
   b) It is secretive and they must not tell anyone. Godly covenants are open.
   c) It is not based on God's Word.
   d) It leads to harmful practices that could involve satanism or devil worship.
2.
   a) Refuse and say NO boldly.
   b) Report to a teacher, parent, head teacher or pastor.
   c) Pray for God's strength and guidance.
   d) Choose good friends.
   e) Resist bad peer pressure.
   f) Remember God's covenant requires obedience and faith.

2.3 Leadership in Israel: Saul

Knowledge test page 65

1.
   a) Disobedience – Performed a duty not assigned to him, just like Saul offered a sacrifice at Gilgal instead of waiting for Samuel.
   b) Lack of patience and self-control – He did not wait for teacher.
   c) Giving excuses or shifting blame – He blamed learners who complained just like Saul blamed people pressuring him.
   d) Lack of respect for authority and taking roles not given to him.

2.

   a) God decided to reject Saul as king and take away kingship from him.
   b) God decided his kingdom would not continue.
   c) God would seek a man after His own heart to replace him.
   d) God withdrew His Spirit from Saul.

3.0 MIRACLES OF JESUS CHRIST

3.1 Healing of Bartimaeus

Knowledge test page 67

1.
   a)
      i) Faith
      ii) Persistence
      iii) Determination
      iv) Courage
      v) Humility
      vi) Boldness.
   b)
      i) Compassion and care for all including the needy and disabled.
      ii) Christians should be ready to help those in need even when busy.
      iii) We should practice humility just like Jesus stopped for a beggar.
      iv) We should have respect for every person.
      v) There should be inclusivity and no discrimination.
2.
   a) To have faith that God has power to heal sickness.
   b) We should be persistent in prayer for healing.
   c) We should seek help from Jesus through prayer.
   d) We should seek medical help as well as spiritual help.
   e) We should not be discouraged by those who try to stop us from seeking help.
   f) God cares about our health challenges.
   g) Healing leads to discipleship by following Jesus.
3.
   a) Pray for them.

b) Visit them and offer them company and comfort.
c) Help them with class notes and assignments they missed.
d) Encourage them and give emotional support.
e) Inform the teacher or parent.
f) Take them to the sick bay.
g) Help them get first aid or medication.

3.2 Calming the storm

Knowledge test page 69

1.
a) John should have faith and trust that God will help him pass next time.
b) John should pray to God for help.
c) John should not give up but work harder and ask his teacher to help him.
d) John should be calm and ignore friends teasing him, the problem will pass like a storm.
e) John should tell his teacher or parent about the teasing so they help him.
2.
a) It shows that God is very powerful. He can control wind and waves.
b) It shows that God loves us and cares for us. He does not leave us alone in problems.
c) It teaches us to pray to God when faced with challenges.
d) It teaches that God can bring peace in my life.

3.3 Healing the paralytic

Knowledge test page 71

1.
a) Listen to the friend and offer comfort and encouragement.
b) Pray for the friend and family.
c) Visit the friend at their home and keep them company.
d) Help with school work or share what they missed.
e) Show kindness and not gossip about their situation.
f) Tell a trusted teacher or counselor to help the friend.
2.
a) We should have faith in Jesus that He can heal and help us.
b) We should help our friends in need like the four friends helped the paralytic.
c) We should not give up when we face challenges.
d) We should bring our friends to Jesus through prayer.
e) Jesus has power to forgive sins and to heal.
f) We should be caring and love others.

4.0 TEACHINGS OF JESUS CHRIST

4.1 Teachings on prayer

Knowledge test page 73

1.
   a) By having strong faith while praying.
   b) By praying confidently without having any doubts.
   c) By believing that God has already answered their prayer.
   d) By demonstrating humility during prayers.
   e) By being sincere when praying to God.
2. Accept any relevant prayer.
   See sample below:

Almighty God, I pray for your guidance, wisdom and knowledge as I engage in academic work. I ask for your blessings so that I may improve in my performance in academics now and in the future. It is in Jesus name I pray and believe. Amen

4.2 The lost sheep

Knowledge test page 75

1. Accept any relevant verse from Luke 15:1—7

Example: “In the same way, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine respectable people who do not need to repent.”

2.
   a) By obeying and following God's commands in everyday life as instructed in the Bible.
   b) By taking part in worshipping God through prayer, singing, and fasting.
   c) By sincerely repenting and confessing sins to God in order to receive salvation.
   d) By living righteously and avoiding sinful ways.
   e) By spreading God's Word and teaching others about salvation.
   f) By having strong faith in Jesus Christ as the path to salvation.
   g) By showing love and kindness to all which reflects the nature of God.
   h) By helping the needy in society, such as the poor, the aged, orphans, and the sick.
   i) By serving as role models to others through leading morally upright lives.

5.0 THE CHURCH

5.1 The Holy Spirit

Knowledge test page 78

1.

a) Keeping the church clean inside and outside through washing, gardening, and setting up seats.
b) Giving tithes and offerings in church to help fund the smooth running of activities.
c) Teaching Sunday school children and preparing for Bible study sessions.
d) Taking up leadership positions within the church such as heading youth groups.
e) Guiding worship sessions in the church such as singing, reading Scripture and leading prayer.
f) Getting involved in community service programmes aimed at helping the needy in society.
g) Recording sermons from church and posting them on social media platforms.
h) Playing instruments such as guitars, drums and pianos during worship.
i) Supporting church projects such as fundraisers through money, materials or services.
j) Taking part in church meetings and committees to help with planning and decisions.
k) Putting together literature such as posters, booklets, and magazines for the church to use.
l) Maintaining church equipment such as microphones and speakers to ensure they operate well.

2.

a) It guides believers to make wise and godly decisions.
b) It teaches helps believers understand and apply God's Word.
c) It gives strength to Christians during difficult situations such as temptations.
d) It provides comfort, offering encouragement and peace during times of trouble.
e) It gives spiritual gifts to believers that help to serve God and others.
f) It helps Christians grow spiritually by producing qualities such as love, joy, peace patience and kindness.
g) It strengthens the faith of Christians during prayers.

5.2 Acts of compassion

Knowledge test page 81

1.

a) Giving donations of food and clothing to the children.
b) Donating learning materials such as books and stationery.
c) Providing emotional support through words of encouragement.
d) Assisting with cleaning and other tasks around the orphanage centre.
e) Engaging in recreational activities with the orphaned children.
f) Praying together with the orphans for God’s strength and comfort.

2.

a) It strengthens one’s relationship with God in service to others.
b) Encourages compassion and care among members of the community.
c) It demonstrates Christian value such as love, generosity and dedicated service to others.
d) It contributes to unity as people join hands to help others.
e) It builds empathy by allowing people to experience the struggles of others.

f) Strengthens relationships between people living within the community.
g) Shapes the value of responsibility when we get actively involved in the issues found in our communities.
h) It ensures growth and development in the society as people help one another.

6.0 CHRISTIAN LIVING TODAY

6.1 Family relationships

Knowledge test page 84

1. Expressing love towards family members by offering care, support, and genuine appreciation.
2. Being honest with family members by speaking the truth and keeping commitments made to them.
3. Practicing kindness by assisting family members with their needs and daily responsibilities.

6.2 Human sexuality: Responsible sexual behavior

Knowledge test page 88

1. By engaging in positive activities that lead to community growth.
2. Dedicating ourselves to serving God.
3. Following God's commands and teaching as found in the Bible.
4. Maintaining friends that encourage moral behavior.
5. Praying to God to seek guidance when making decisions.
6. Avoiding situations and behaviours that may lead into immorality.
7. Practicing Christian values such as respect, love and honesty in day-to-day life.

6.3 Sacredness of life

Knowledge test page 92

1.

a) Harmful online content including certain websites and games can influence individuals towards suicide.
b) Financial struggles such as debt, gambling losses and poverty can drive someone toward hopelessness and suicide.
c) Substance abuse can affect judgment and increase risk-taking behaviour that endangers one's life.

d) Depression marked by deep hopelessness can lead someone into suicide as an escape from emotional pain.
e) Experiences of abuse whether sexual, physical, or emotional can lead to suicide in an attempt to avoid further suffering.
f) Family conflict, rejection, or lack of support can leave a person feeling isolated and therefore committing suicide.

2. Accept relevant responses with the following values included: self-control, responsibility, patience, respect and love

6.4 Bullying

Knowledge test page 95

1.
   a) Assisting family members with household chores.
   b) Using kind and respectful words when speaking to family members.
   c) Taking care of family members whenever they need support or help.
2.
   a) Offering help to classmates who are struggling with their work.
   b) Treating teachers and fellow learners with respect.
   c) Sharing learning materials and resources with others in class.
3.
   a) Welcoming and supporting fellow church members.
   b) Engaging in acts of kindness towards the needy in church.
   c) Actively participating in church activities.

6.5 Work: Talents, gifts and abilities

Knowledge test page 97

1.
   a) Open a group savings account in a bank or financial institution to keep the money safe.
   b) Keep accurate records of income and expenditure to track how much is saved.
   c) Set aside a fixed percentage of the profits after every sale for savings.
   d) Appoint a trustworthy treasurer who will manage the savings.
   Accept any other relevant answer.
2.
   a) Reinvest part of the savings back into the project to expand it.
   b) Use some of the savings to pay for group needs such as school fees.

c) Set aside funds for emergencies such as unexpected losses or repairs.
d) Give offering or tithe to God using a percentage of the savings.
e) Use part of the savings to support community projects such as helping the needy.
Accept any other relevant answer.

3.

a) Purchase land or property that can generate an extra income.
b) Start a related business that can support the main business.
c) Invest the savings so that they earn interest over a set period of time.
d) Buy livestock such as goats or poultry which can be sold for profit.
e) Lend money to group members or other people at a reasonable interest rate.
Accept any other relevant answer.

6.6 Leisure

Knowledge test page 100

1.

a) Sleeping
b) Dancing and singing
c) Traveling and adventure
d) Visiting friends and family.
e) Playing sports and games
f) Drawing and painting
g) Reading books and storytelling
h) Watching godly movies
i) Swimming
j) Cooking for fun.

2.

a) Taking part in criminal acts such as theft and robbery.
b) Taking part in gossip and the spreading of rumours.
c) Risking money and property through gambling and betting.
d) Engaging in idleness and laziness that lead to unproductive habits.
e) Abusing substances such as alcohol and bhang.
f) Engaging in irresponsible sexual behaviour.
g) Spending excessive amounts of time on social media.
h) Visiting unsafe places in the company of negative peer influences.
i) Viewing ungodly content and videos on social media platforms.
j) Bullying others both physically and emotionally.

3.

a) Sharing helps one be kind and generous towards others during leisure time.
b) Integrity helps one choose the right leisure activities even when no one else is watching.
c) Responsibility helps one spend leisure time in a safe way that avoids causing harm.
d) Love helps one show compassion by caring for the needy during free time.

e) Honesty helps one remain truthful while taking part in various leisure activities.
f) Patience helps one stay calm and avoid rushing into risky leisure activities.
g) Obedience helps one follow the guidance of teachers and parents regarding the use of leisure time.